

What “tool” to use and when:

Toolboxes contain screwdrivers, hammers, pliers and all kinds of things you use each of them at different times – sometimes together – but each with its specific purpose. The same with our tools. You can let go of your need to do them all at once and work them into your life gradually. I have listed which of our products covers the particular worksheet.

- A. The forgiveness wake-up is what we consider the “foundation” and should be used daily (michael says 5 a day for 40 days). Called “Stress / Reality Management Wake-up Sheet”

- Z. “StillPoint Breathing” this is an experiential process but is one of the most powerful tools. Taught in our Intensives and also the all-day MindShifters & StillPoint Breathing Workshops. There is a DVD that gives an introduction to the process but is not enough to ‘learn how’.

Now you have the whole alphabet of FREE Tools & Support - Together they make a whole package – individually they each work in different arenas in your life. Pick and choose moment by moment which one serves you and use them all. In an intensive people will ask “which tools” or “what do I do in this case...” and michael writes on the board “ALL OF THE ABOVE”

Purchase Audios & Videos & Books from our Catalog (which then supports this work)

<https://whyagain.org/products> Watch and listen to our videos/audios as each of the above are covered in different DVDs and CDs – sometimes you have to watch the same one repeatedly for the information to really be understood – keep watching! Other workshops that we have available to purchase that do not have a specific worksheet to print-off:

- “Circle of Life and How To Play It” DVD
- “On Creating Consciously” DVD & CD
- “Naturopathic Keys to Health” DVD
- “Mind-Body Bio-Energetics” DVD
- Three lessons from “A Course in Miracles” in three different DVDs
- “MindShifters & Introduction to StillPoint Breathing” DVD
- “Aramaicisms” 4 hr DVD
- “Wellness Through Stillness” 20-minute meditation CD

And <https://whyagain.org/healing/in-jeanie-s-view/workshops> is a link where you can read Jeanie's viewpoint of each workshop – my reviews might direct you somewhat towards a particular starting point for using each of the tools. And do use each one – just give yourself some space and time for “building brain cells” and practice, practice, practice. And BREATHE!!!

Thank you for being willing to do your work. Blessings, Jeanie
